

INTRODUCTION

Congratulations on having successfully reached your final year of teacher training. Now is the time to consider seriously your employment options.

The NSW Department of Education and Training offers final year teacher education students opportunities for employment in 2010.

Make the decision to teach in a NSW public school

Teaching in a NSW public school is more than a job - it's an opportunity to pursue an intellectually challenging and creative career.

You will have the satisfaction of making a real difference to the lives and learning of young people who are the future of our nation.

There are so many opportunities to pursue your individual interests and talents in our network of over 2,200 schools located throughout NSW.

An attractive starting salary, promotion on merit, generous leave entitlements and flexible working conditions make the NSW Department of Education and Training the employer of first choice for teachers.
